

Dr Bilal Al-Jiffry

Dr Bilal O Al-Jiffry completed his residency in general surgery at King Faisal specialist hospital, Riyadh in 1998. He then completed his PhD, Hepato-biliary fellowship and Live Tx at the University of Adelaide, Australia, under Prof. James Toouli in 2001. This was followed by another year working with Professor Joseph Lau for a further fellowship as a senior lecturer in the Chinese University of Hong Kong, in 2002.

In January 2003 he was appointed consultant HPB and Liver Tx surgeon at the National Guard Hospital, Riyadh where he remained until 2006, when he moved to the Military hospital in Taif as the Director of Surgery. Since 2010 he has been the director of surgery at Taif University while holding his post in the Military hospital as a senior HPB consultant. He is also involved with the Medical Education and the Academic Assessment units at the college. Dr Al-Jiffry is also involved in the education, training and examination of the surgical residents in the Saudi Surgical Program conducted by the Saudi Committee for Health Specialty to obtain the Saudi Boards in General Surgery.

Since 2012 he has been a member of the executive Board of the Saudi Surgical Society and the editor and founder of the Saudi Surgical Journal. He is also on the editorial board of several international journals and acts as a reviewer for other journals in the surgical aspects and HPB surgery.