

ANNUAL REPORT (2017)

HISTORY

Hepatobiliary and Pancreatic Surgery Department has been for 4 years. Previously it was at hepatology department building and was moved to six stories- Yangon Specialty Hospital which was opened on 7th October, 2017. The building was built with government budget and it includes total 6 OT rooms and two OT rooms are modular types which are for transplant operations.

MISSION

1. To help longevity of liver diseases
2. To promote our health care status
3. To develop our profession by means of inter-departmental and international collaborations.
4. Work together, share together and happy at Hepatobiliary and Pancreatic surgery.

SERVICES

- Total admission - 1182
- OPD - 4951
- Total operation – 429
- Perioperative Mortality-4.3%
- Liver Transplantation –
 - 2 pairs in February
 - 2 pairs in May
 - 2 pairs in August

TRAINING

- Training in SNUH, Korea in January, February and March: including vascular surgeon, anaesthesiologist, pathologists, hepatologists, OT nurses, ICU nurses and coordinator

- Attending Master Class in Liver Disease 7; Liver Disease & Transplantation Back to Basic Conference, India in January
- Training in Nagasaki, Japan for management of Liver Transplantation in February (one surgeon for 6 weeks)
- Attending HBPS Surgery Week 2017 & 46th Annual Congress of the Korean Association of HBP Surgery, Korea in March
- Training in SNUH, Korea as Korea-Myanmar Collaboration on Liver Transplantation (4 surgeons for 6 months)
- Training in Indraprastha Apollo Hospital, Hepatobiliary & Liver Transplant Surgery (one surgeon for one year)
- Attending ILTS Conference, Czech in May
- Attending 4th Mekong Endo Surgery Development Association (MESDA): HPB Basic Course in Laparoscopic Liver Surgery in June
- Attending 4th MCLC Ethicon Vascular & Micro Vascular Course for HPB & Transplant Surgeons, India in June
- Training in China for HIFU Training in July
- Attending 1st Percutaneous Laser Ablation Network Education Initiative on Laser Ablation for Liver Tumors in July

- Attending International Association of Surgeons, Gastroenterologist & Oncologist Collaborating to Advance Surgical & Anaesthetic Care Congress 2017, Singapore in August
- Attending Asian Transplant Week 2017, Korea in October
- Attending 13th Asia Pacific Congress of Endoscopic & Laparoscopic Surgeons of Asia, Philippines in November

- Initial experience of laparoscopic liver resection in YSH (Oral presentation in 13th ELSA, 2017)
- HCC surveillance program at Dr. Htein clinic and Hlaingtharyar LYC clinic

RESEARCHES

- Living donor liver transplantation for advanced hepatocellular carcinoma using no-touch isolation technique: 1st case in Myanmar (Poster presentation at ILTS, 2017)
- Transverse incision donor right hepatectomy: 1st case in Myanmar (Poster presentation at ILTS, 2017)
- Portal vein thrombectomy and direct ligation of huge porto-systemic collaterals in living donor liver transplantation: 1st case in Myanmar (Poster presentation in HBP week, 2017)
- Surgical Workload of Myanmar hepatobiliary department in 2016 (Poster presentation in HBP week, 2017)
- Medical complications after living donor liver transplantation: Myanmar Experience (Poster presentation in ATW, 2017)
- Initial experience of liver transplant program in Yangon Specialty Hospital (Poster presentation in ATW, 2017)

EXAMINATIONS

- 1st year Dr.Med.Sc (Hepatobiliary and Pancreatic Surgery) examination in December, 2017

OTHER INTERNATIONAL COLLABORATION

- Joint surgery at YSH with laparoscopic hepatobiliary surgeons from Tan Tock Seng Hospital, Singapore in March and November

- Review meeting with Stephen Maun, director of liver transplant, Auckland city hospital, Newzeland in November, 2017

